

Top 100 Neighborhood Gem Restaurants in America As voted by OpenTable Diners

Eating local isn't just about ingredients; it's also about the restaurants in your community that make you feel special time and again. Our Top 100 Neighborhood Gems list honors the welcoming spots at which diners celebrate both the everyday and the exceptional. The list of honorees is determined after analyzing more than five million reviews of nearly 19,000 restaurants across the country – all submitted by verified diners.

Stones Throw

Address:

1896 Hyde Street
San Francisco, CA 94109

Neighborhood:

Russian Hill

Cuisine:

American Price: $31 to $50

A word from Stones Throw

Stones Throw, a California/American restaurant and bar situated in the heart of San Francisco in the renowned Russian Hill neighborhood, goes back to the basics, highlighting the simple things in life: great food, undying hospitality and a fun, carefree environment where everyone feels welcome.

Food inspired from past experiences at a slew of four star restaurants is turned into fun and approachable every day dining with a seasonally changing menu. Stones Throw features an extensive beer list with a balance between large format, hard to find beers, and familiar namesakes as well as a wine menu focusing on value, along with a careful balance of eclectic and adventurous wines.

A carefully formed team of some of the most talented restaurant staff in San Francisco is here to help create a fun and unforgettable experience each and every time you visit Stones Throw. We hope to see you soon...and often. Cheers!