Best Brunch: Stones Throw (address and info)

Toast Eatery and The Crepe House: great for a quick, in-and-out breakfast (but not an In-N-Out breakfast -- HOLY CRAP HOW GOOD WOULD THAT BE!?). For an extremely quality brunch meal, though? Stone's Throw, where you should grab a pitcher of Pimm's Cup and eat asparagus and duck confit hash that's topped with poached eggs and Hollandaise with a buttermilk biscuit to sop it all up, --WAIT THERE'S MORE! -- plus vanilla sugar donuts that're served with milk jam, strawberry compote, and balsamic that bring just the right tang to counteract the sweetness.
